Programming Assignment 4
Assignment 4 - Introduction to AWS

Lab 4: Documentation

1. Download the attached file.

2. Copy the attached file in the Python installed folder.

3. Open the command prompt, and navigate to the designated folder.

4. Run the file using command: python aws_client_check.py

5. Use the options to upload the file and import it into a database.

6. Keys is being passed in the connection as well as the database name and table name.

7. Navigate through the option to import, run queires.

8. Two different files are there to run the python code without the memcache named aws_client_check.py and with memcache the file name is aws_client_memcached.py

9. Navigate through the option and run upload the file.